The ultimate cheat sheet for Business Managers:

If you say no to any one of these, you're losing precious time and money.

Are you working with passionate partners?

1. Can I count on my current business travel provider to bring a dedicated team to the table, to keep our program humming?
2. Is my travel management team putting in the legwork behind the scenes to ensure the best value for our business while keeping travellers happy?
3. Are our travel arrangers and travellers backed by experts who can handle any curveball, 24/7?
4. Does our business travel provider "get" us, offering proactive advice to keep us ahead of the game in the changing travel scene?
5. Do I have a passionate travel partner committed to delivering top-notch solutions that go beyond booking to ensure our business thrives?

Is your business travel tech empowering your business?

1. Does our team have access to user-friendly tech tools covering booking, expenses, and travel management, in the palm of their hands?
2. Do my travel arrangers have easy tools for trip approvals and confirmation?
3. Can we access custom, real-time reports on spending, travel habits, and policy compliance for smarter decision making?
4. Is expense management a breeze with a simple chargeback solution for travellers and our finance team?
5. Can our tech solutions and training scale alongside our business growth to keep us ahead of the curve?

Are you getting the best value possible?

1. Do we have access to a goldmine of insider knowledge, big savings and sweet perks like complimentary breakfast, free Wi-Fi and late check-outs?
2. Do we have crystal-clear visibility on fees, program spending, unused credits, and other opportunities to trim costs?
3. Is my travel solution plugged into a vast network of hotels, airlines, and car rental services, for competitive prices and direct negotiation options?
4. Does our solution fit us like a glove, offering value beyond bookings with top-tier service, invaluable insights, and perks that grow as we do?
5. Does my provider offer real-time expense tracking and a line of credit with a trading account?
