

Stressed booking business travel?

Our experts and tech are your passport to the best options.

Smarter booking. Instant insights. Hassle-free travel.

Managing business travel in-house means too many steps, too much guesswork, and not enough visibility.

Corporate Traveller makes it easy!

- One simple tool for flights, hotels, and car hire – with built-in policy controls to keep bookings on track.
- Everything at a glance – daily updated reports show exactly what's booked and spent.
- Automatic approvals – keep bookings compliant without messy email chains.
- 24/7 expert support from people who know your business – we don't just troubleshoot, we solve problems before they become disruptions.

Clear, simple, and hassle-free

Managing travel in-house	Managing travel with Corporate Traveller
Searching multiple sites for flights, hotels, and cars	One tool with all travel options and policy controls built in
No consistency—every employee books differently	Easy-to-use booking process that keeps things organised
Expense tracking is manual and scattered	Daily updated reports for effortless budget tracking
Travel approvals get lost in emails	Built-in approval workflows ensure compliance without hassle
No backup when plans change	24/7 expert support from specialists who know your business

The difference? Experts that know your business

Our technology makes business travel easier to book and manage—but what happens when things don't go to plan? That's where our experts come in, service like this for SME is unheard of!

- Decades of experience you can trust – With 30+ years in travel management and an average consultant tenure of 14 years, we've seen it all and know how to navigate any challenge.
- Deep industry relationships – Our strong supplier partnerships mean we unlock value, negotiate smarter, and provide exclusive insights you won't get from managing travel in-house.
- Proactive problem-solving – Whether it's aligning your policy with new fare rules on day one or handling disruptions before they impact travellers, our experts act fast.

Support that's part of your team – We take ownership of your travel program like it's our own, ensuring seamless service and helping you plan for what's next.

Less effort, more visibility, smarter travel

Corporate Traveller brings everything together—one tool, one process, and all the information you need at your fingertips, backed by real experts who make travel easier.

Let's talk about smarter business travel

Visit www.corporatetraveller.co.nz or contact us today to learn more.

